BETWEEN Men's and Boys' Clothing

We make no difference in this case and furnish all attention to detail. There is no sweat-shop work on any of our Suits. Is not this worth the thoughtful consideration of mothers? Isn't it worth paying a trifle more to have your boy's suit made in a proper manner? If the wife were consulted, wouldn't she insist that the husband avoid wearing sweat-shop clothing?

We have just received a new line of STAR WAISTS, with and without collars. Just the thing for the school season.

Also a fine line of EXTRA PANTS for MEN and BOYS.

Extraordinary efforts have been made by us to find and prepare the things needful for your good appearance and comfort—the very best SUITS for MEN and BOYS; Shirts, Hats, Outing Flannels, etc.

All these are worthy of your attention, being fashionable in cut and stylish in appearance.

Our Two Big Stores and their services are at your command.

No order too great for prompt attention; none too small for the strictest care.

TERRIBLE SLAUGHTER OF AMERICAN TROOPS

Company C, Ninth Infantry, Cut to Pieces in Philippines.

NEARLY FIFTY MEN MASSACRED

THE GARRISON ATTACKED BY BOLOMEN WHILE AT BREAKFAST.

Believed That All the Officers of the Company Were Also Killed—Insurgents Capture Ammunition and Guns—General Hughes to Scene.

MANILA, Sept. 29.—A disastrous fight between United States troops and insurgents occurred yesterday in the Island of Samar, near Balangiga. A large body of insurgents attacked Company C, Ninth Infantry, only twenty-four members of the company escaping. All the others are reported to have been killed. The company were at breakfast when the attack was made, and they made a determined resistance, but the overwhelming numbers of the insurgents compelled them to retreat. Of the survivors who have arrived at Basey eleven are wounded.

According to the latest returns the strength of the company was seventy-two. The survivors include Captain T. W. Connell, First Lieutenant Edward A. Bumpus, and Dr. R. S. Griswold, surgeon.

Captain Edward Bookmiller of the Ninth Infantry reports that General Hughes is assembling a force to attack the insurgents.

The insurgents captured all the stores and ammunition of the company and all the rifles except twelve.

Captain Lawrence J. Heurne of the Twenty-first Infantry reports a severe engagement with the insurgents near Candalaria, the Americans losing one killed and two wounded. The insurgent loss has not been ascertained. The Americans captured 30,000 pounds of rice and several hundred rounds of ammunition.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—News of the disastrous fight between troops of the Ninth Infantry and the insurgents on the Island of Samar yesterday was sent on promptly by General Hughes, commanding in that island, to General Chaffee at Manila, and by him transmitted to the War Department. It reached the department during the early hours today, and Adjutant General Corbin, realizing its importance, at once made public, after sending a copy to the White House. General Chaffee's dispatch is as follows:

"MANILA, Sept. 29.—Adjutant General Washington: Hughes reports the following from Basey, Samar: 'Twenty-four men, Ninth regiment of United States Infantry (wounded) have just arrived from Balangiga; remainder of the company were killed. Insurgents secured all the company supplies and all September 28th. Company seventy-two strong. Officers: Thomas W. Connell, captain; Edward A. Bumpus, first lieutenant; Dr. R. S. Griswold, major, surgeon, escaped.'

"CHAFFEE." The news created a sensation in official circles. It was the first severe reverse that has occurred for a long time. Still, the officials were not unprepared for news of just this character from Samar, in which island the revolution started by Aguinaldo still continues. Samar is a country about as large as the State of Ohio, and the American force of occupation numbers in all between 2,500 and 3,000 men. These are distributed among various posts in the island, a large number being located at the more important centers. Spain never made any effort to occupy Samar, and it has been only for probably three months that the United States has undertaken that work.

The Philippines carried on a guerrilla war and operations against them were difficult. The disaster to Company C of the Ninth Infantry occurred, it is believed, while it was engaged in an expedition to clear the country of roving bands of these insurgents. The fact that the Americans were attacked while at breakfast indicates the daring and pluck of the insurgents.

Was a Severe Defeat.

MANILA, Sept. 30.—General Hughes, from the Island of Samar, reports the arrival of Sergeant Markley and one private at Tannan from the fight at Balangiga, where over forty men of Company C of the Ninth Infantry were killed by insurgents, who attacked the troops while at breakfast Saturday last. The men who have reached Tannan say that the officers of the company, who were at first reported to have escaped, were killed while attempting to escape. The troops were attacked, while unprepared, by 400 bolomen of whom the Americans killed about 140. Many of the soldiers were killed in their quarters before they had time to grasp their rifles.

General Hughes is going to the scene of the disaster and will personally command the troops.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—In addition to the enlisted men, three commissioned officers of Company C, Ninth Infantry, are supposed now to have been killed in the action in Samar, Philippine Islands, last Saturday.

A question having arisen as to the accuracy of the cablegram received at the War Department from General Chaffee, the cable company was directed to repeat it. The repetition disclosed some inaccuracies that materially changed the message. As corrected, the dispatch reads:

MANILA, Sept. 29.—Adjutant General Washington: Hughes reports the following from Passay, Samar: 'Twenty-four men Company C, Ninth regiment United States Infantry, eleven wounded, have just arrived from Balangiga; remainder of company killed. Insurgents secured all company supplies and all rifles except twelve. The company was attacked during breakfast on the morning of September 28th. The company was seventy-two strong. Officers: Thomas W. Connell, captain; Edward A. Bumpus, first lieutenant; Dr. R. S. Griswold, major, surgeon.'

"CHAFFEE." As corrected the dispatch shows that Company C of the Ninth Infantry suffered the disaster. No company was mentioned in the dispatch made public yesterday. The serious discrepancy between the original and the corrected dispatches, however, is that the latter indicates that the commissioned officers of the company are missing, perhaps killed, while the former indicated that they escaped.

Massacred Through Treachery.

MANILA, Oct. 3.—The latest advices from the Island of Samar give harrowing details of the slaughter of the members of Company C, Ninth United States Infantry, last Saturday at Balangiga. They state that the President of the town, who claimed to be friendly, led the assault in person.

The fight was long premeditated and the Filipinos were called to commit the slaughter by the ringing of church bells at daylight. They got between the soldiers, who were breakfasting, and their quarters. The insurgents were mostly armed with bolos, but they had a few rifles with them.

On hearing of the slaughter, Colonel Isaac P. Johnson of the Eleventh Infantry started for the scene immediately with a battalion. The body of Captain Connell had been tied at the heels, saturated with kerosene and partly burned. Forty-five bodies have been buried in a trench, leaving seven unaccounted for. The charred remains of many were recovered. In numerous instances the bodies had been badly mutilated.

Three hundred Macabebes will also be dispatched to the scene of the massacre on board the Legassi.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—A cable to the Sun from Manila says:

General Chaffee has sent a battalion each of the Seventh and Twenty-sixth regiments to Samar, and the severest kind of warfare will be waged against the rebels in that district. During the past few months the American troops have been restricted in their operations by rain, which still prevails.

The navy, which is co-operating with the army, has sent three gunboats to Samar. Commander Marx will go to China and Japan to arrange for the purchase of twenty steamboats, which will cost $1,000,000. These vessels will be used for the insular revenue service, and will also provide complete interisland communication.

The new civil code became operative yesterday.

Preparations for an Uprising.

MANILA, Sept. 30.—A new branch of the Katipunan has been discovered. Tarlac capital of the province of that name. The object of the society is the slaughter of the whites. Marcelino Mariño, President of Bantayan, is the chief of the new branch, which includes numbers of the native constabulary, who were recently armed. One policeman admits that he was taxed $1 and was ordered to make bolos. A regular collection has been made by the organization from the natives either by persuasion or threats, and an uprising has been planned for an early date.

The conditions in Tayabas and Batangas are not reassuring. The worst form of guerrilla warfare prevails there. The insurgent forces are distributed, under cover, along every road and trail, and wait for travelers in ambush. The insurgent leader, Cabalos, who formerly belonged to General Calles' command, but who refused to surrender with Calles, is retreating to the mountains. The main forces of the insurgents are scattered in hands over the province, where they dig up rifles when there is an opportunity to use them.
